

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Helen Comstock has dedicated the last 27 years of her life to the South Dakota Department of Revenue; and,

WHEREAS, For more than a quarter of a century, Helen has befriended the befuddled, consoled the confused, and enlightened the frightened when it came to tax questions; and,

WHEREAS, Helen knows how scary taxes can be, especially when you don't understand them, and that is why she has devoted a career to understanding and then explaining the inexplicable to hundreds of bewildered business people; and,

WHEREAS, Helen Comstock has been a long-time friend to the business community and an invaluable asset to the State of South Dakota and Sioux Falls; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to being a well-liked and trusted employee of the Department of Revenue, Helen has been an inspiration to her fellow state employees and just an all-around nice lady in the tax office; and,

WHEREAS, This spring, after more than 27 years of service to the State, Helen is retiring from State Government to a "tax-free" life of luxury; a relaxing life which we all know she has earned and greatly deserves:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 18, 1982, as in South Dakota, with special gratitude to Helen for giving her best to the state that is proud to call her one of its outstanding citizens.
